

by Congress on December 16, 2016 as PL: 114-322 (the "WIIN act"), the Board must conclude its administrative hearing by September 5, 2017.

The dates for Prehearing Conference and Potential Hearing Dates were carefully selected and published to parties and persons of interest well in advance of the deadline in order to facilitate timely hearing, negate the need for rescheduling and to eliminate as many date and time conflicts as possible for the 79 interested parties/participants and their representatives.

For the reasons listed herein your Motion for Prehearing Continuance and to Set Formal Evidentiary Hearing is DENIED.

You may, however, appoint a representative to participate in the scheduling conference. Your appointee need not be an attorney or legal representative;

If you determine to appoint a person as your representative, you must notify us in writing (electronic or mail) on or before June 26, 2017 as to:

- a. Name and contact info for your appointee; and
- b. Certify that your appointee will have info as to your availability for scheduling purposes between the Prehearing Conference date (6/28/2017) and the currently scheduled hearing dates (8/21/17-8/25/17); and
- c. Certify that you are willing to be bound by the scheduling order resulting from the Prehearing Conference.

IT IS SO ORDERED this 19 day of June, 2017.

Lyn Martin-Diehl
Hearing Examiner
